Draping Advance

Room and Roof draping: All over venues is fully booked for wedding and year end functions. When you or your client needs to book you don't always have a choice in the décor of the venue. Draping the venue adds glamour and elegance, but that's not all. A good draping design will positively transform the atmosphere of your site and enhance your theme.

Marquee draping: A marquee can be the most magical setting for a wedding reception but their linings can often look a bit plain. Draping can be a great addition to any marquee. Learn about the art of marquee draping. You can create looks ranging from the classic elegance of ivory to a coloured theme to create a unique individual event.

Arch and Gazebo: Most brides prefer to get married in the summer - in a beautiful garden, on a wine farm or on the beach. There is nothing more beautiful at an outdoor wedding than a wedding arch that has been decorated to match the overall feel of the wedding.
